

SLAYBAUGH IS RE-ELECTED TO COUNTY OFFICE

J. Floyd Slaybaugh, county school superintendent of Adams county for the past four years, was re-elected at the annual meeting of school directors at the court house today for another four-year term. He defeated Charles Taylor, Donaldson, Pa., former principal at Arendtsville, by a roll call vote of 78 to 41, with 40 directors absent.

At the same time the directors raised the salary of Superintendent Slaybaugh from $3,500 to $4,000 a year, the state minimum, and increased the salaries of assistant superintendent and the supervisor of special education from $3,000 to $4,000. The latter figure is $500 over the state minimum.

Superintendent Slaybaugh said he would not name his assistant superintendent or the supervisor of special education until after he has received his commission from Harrisburg. Dr. Robert A. Bream is now assistant and Dr. Ralph A. Scraftford supervisor.

Nominates Slaybaugh
The meeting, held in the court room, was called to order by Luther E. Jacobs, Gettysburg R. 3, president of the county school board, who acted as temporary chairman. Luther M. Lady, Biglerville R. 2, was elected chairman, and Russell Spangler, Gettysburg R. 4, was elected secretary. Tellers elected were Raymond M. Baugher, New Oxford, and E. B. Hartzell, Fairfield.

Mr. Slaybaugh was nominated for county superintendent by William M. Lott, Gettysburg, who declared in a nominating speech that Mr. Slaybaugh had served the county schools efficiently during the past four years of a war period and was familiar with changes in the state education law to go into effect in 1947.

Nominates Taylor
Mr. Taylor was nominated by Lloyd W. Klinefelter, Biglerville. There were no other nominations, and each school director voted as his name was called. Following his election, Mr. Slaybaugh thanked the directors for his re-election and promised an efficient administration. Mr. Taylor, the defeated candidate, extended his congratulations, and his hopes that Mr. Slaybaugh would have a "very successful" succeeding four years and expressed the hope that the school directors would give Mr. Slaybaugh their full support.

Surprise Bill Provides 'Department Of Defense'

Washington, April 9 (AP)—A three-member subcommittee today recommended legislation to the Senate Military Committee to abolish the present War and Navy Departments and create a single new "Department of Common Defense."

The action served to make public the proposed bill. The measure is intended to carry out President Truman's request for unification of the armed forces.

Drafted after months of closed-door sessions, the bill would raise the air forces to equal rank with the army and navy and place all three under a single new cabinet member, to be known as the "Secretary of Common Defense."

Although a complete new plan for organization of the armed forces was presented, actual date of abolition of the present War and Navy Departments would be determined by the President.

The legislation was drafted by Chairman Elbert Thomas (D, Utah), Senator Austin (R, Vt.), ranking Republican member of the committee.

ARMY CHAPLAIN TALKS TO LIONS CLUB ON IRAN

Predicting that Russia will get its troops out of Iran by the promised date, Chaplain (Captain) Pierce Willard, who served with the army in Iran during World War II, predicted here Monday in a talk to Gettysburg Lions that if Russia chooses to "get tough" in that part of the world, it will be over the question of an outlet to the sea at the Dardanelles.

The speaker, however, declined to forecast the ultimate turn of world affairs revolving about Iran's great oil supplies. He emphasized that it is "very important that the United States be sure it insists only upon fair dealing between nations rather than setting in the position of supporting the corrupt Iranian government."

Chaplain Willard, who is a graduate of Gettysburg college and seminary and a veteran of nearly four years of service in the army, showed the nearly 60 clubmen and their guests colored slides of scenic and historic spots in Iran, which he described as largely desert surrounded by high mountains. Iran's area is three times that of the state of Texas, he said.

One Cause of Friction
The speaker pointed out that Iran and Russia have in common the Soviet village-farm system although there are differences at the "top" of their governmental frameworks. Iran, he said, is a "medieval monarchy."

He declared that so far the United States government has been "doing a good job" in handling the Iran situation. Much of the friction between Iran and Russia is traceable to the absence of oil operations by the Russians in previously-conceded lands thereby depriving the (Please Turn to Page 5)

RED CROSS DRIVE "UNOFFICIALLY" OVER THE TOP

The Adams County Red Cross Fund drive was, unofficially, over the top today.

Officially a total of $13,860.63 has been turned in to Mrs. Effa Chapman, treasurer for the drive. The amount is approximately $100 less than the goal of $14,000.

However, an additional $1,137.07 was known to be in the hands of drive chairmen at East Berlin and Fairfield, which, when it is turned in to the county office, will bring the total figures to nearly $15,000.

S. L. Allison, Fairfield district chairman, reported to the county office by phone that he has $827 in collections from his district. East Berlin officials reported collections of $510.07 and additional sums are being received there.

$1,045 from New Oxford
Frank W. Higinbotham, New Oxford chairman, turned over $895.60 this morning to complete the drive in that area, which has turned in a total of $1,045.75.

Among the leading contributions from New Oxford were $100 each from C. K. Yeager and Mrs. John N. Hersh. $75 from the Livingston shoe company; $50 each from Grace Taylor Himes, William Himes and the Aero Oil company and $25 each from Mr. and Mrs. David DeTar, the Social club and B. F. Blair.

Other contributions announced by the Red Cross today included $60 from Lee D. Grief and Irvin Grief of the Middleburg manufacturing company; $54 from the Mt. Tabor U. B. PCBL COUNCIL VOTES TO BACK LIBRARY BILLS

The Queen of Peace Council of the Pennsylvania Catholic Beneficial League Monday evening voted to give its full support to the Public Library Demonstration bills now pending before congress.

Following discussion on the bills which are designed to provide federal funds in addition to present state funds to promote and assist public libraries the group directed its secretary, Mrs. Sarah A. Roth, to write letters to both of Pennsylvania's U. S. Senators and to Congressman Chester H. Gross indicating the group's favorable opinion of the bills. Mrs. George Eberhart, Mrs. G. Noel Flynn and Mrs. Roth led the discussion on the measure.

The group also voted to support plans now underway among various Girl Scout troops in the county by which the troops would be reorganized under area leadership similar to the set-up in which the Boy Scouts of the county are now under the York-Adams area of the scouts. At present there is no over-all leadership in the county for the Girl Scouts other than a committee of Girl Scout leaders, it was pointed out at the meeting.

Mrs. Jacob Small, Mrs. Joseph Smith and Miss Jane Stallsmith were appointed as members to a committee of all local Catholic organizations being established to explore the possibilities of obtaining a motion picture projector for the local Catholic school, following a decision by the PCBL to join in sponsoring the proposed projector program.

HANOVER MAN PLEADS GUILTY TO BURGLARY

Burnell L. Freed, 25, Hanover, today pleaded guilty before Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore, to a charge of burglarizing the home of John A. Codori, 405 York street, on March 22.

Freed was seeking to raise bail to appear before the court for sentence later this month and was scheduled to appear before Judge W. C. Sheely to have the bail set in the case.

The Hanover man was picked up by Hanover police Monday afternoon on a warrant from local Borough Chief of Police Robert C. Harpster and was brought to Gettysburg where he signed a confession Monday evening stating that he had taken a man's yellow gold wrist watch from the Codori home and had also taken a $1 bill and "some change" in addition to the watch.

Arrested in Hanover
Chief Harpster, after the theft was reported, learned that Freed had previously rented a room at the Codori home and had been seen by a number of persons on York street on the date the watch was taken, he stated at the hearing before Justice Basehore.

On investigating the activities of Freed, the local policeman found that a man named "George Good" has sold the watch at a pawn shop on George street in York for $10 shortly after the burglary. The description of "Good" and Freed tallied and Harpster secured a warrant for the arrest of Freed. He notified the Hanover chief of police who called Monday stating that Freed was in his custody. Borough Officer Clark W. Staley was sent to Hanover to pick up the prisoner.

Monday evening Freed told the local police he had hitchhiked to Gettysburg on March 22 and had seen Mrs. Codori on the street. She told him, Freed said, that there was some mail for him at the Codori house. Freed said he went to the house for the mail and then went to Mr. Codori's room where he searched through a bureau and found the watch and money.

The Auxiliary donated $5 to the Gettysburg Recreation board for the playground fund and decided to offer five prizes totaling $15 for poppy sale leaders. In other years poppy sale prizes totaled $5, the sum being offered the first prize winner this year. Poppy sales will be started as soon as the poppies are received, it was decided.

Mrs. Emory Fox and Mrs. Cecil Guise were in charge of refreshments and Ruth Miller and Mrs. LeRoy Winebrenner were in charge of entertainment.

C. C. ADVANCES NEW JAIL SITE ON W. HIGH ST.

Henry W. Garvin, president of the Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce, today revealed that he had filed his second communication with the Adams county commissioners relative to locating the new county jail on the old fairgrounds site on West High street.

President Garvin said today that the fairgrounds site had been advanced as a possible location for the new jail, in preference to the Biglerville road site, early in February. He also stated that he had addressed a communication to the commissioners on March 26 again calling their attention to the West High street site. He said that thus far he has not received a reply to that communication.

To further advance the advisability of locating the jail on the old fairgrounds site, President Garvin said that he addressed a second communication to the commissioners today advocating further consideration of that site over the Biglerville road site near the Adams county home.

Second Letter
Today's letter, President Garvin said, was delivered to the Commissioners early this afternoon. The communication follows:

"With further reference to the suggested jail site on the old fairgrounds, West High street, Gettysburg, Pa., as stated in my letter of March 26th, we believe that in all fairness to the tax-payers of the county, the two sites should be compared on a dollar and cents basis.

"The principal reasons for not placing the county jail on the poor house land are the financial costs to the taxpayers of the county, the inconvenience to those who have to use the jail in connection with the court house and the deterioration in the development of the residential section of Gettysburg, as set forth in the following comparisons.

"Estimated value of the county owned land and additional costs:

"200 ft. front lot at $30.00	$ 6,000
"200 ft. back lot at $15.00	3,000
"Extension of sewer	1,000
"Extension of water	1,600
"Extension of gas	200
"Extra transportation of prisoners	200
	$12,000

"On the proposed site along the Biglerville road, the building would face east and west, giving sunlight in only one half of the prisoners' rooms.

Cites Cost Variation
"Value of proposed site in the Borough of Gettysburg, Pa., located on the old fair grounds on West High street.

"200 ft. front lot at $10.00	$2,000
"200 ft. back lot at $5.00	1,000
	$3,000

"On the proposed site in Gettysburg, Pa., the building would run north and south, with sunlight in every room at some time of the day. This site requires no extension of utilities and has railroad facilities for coal and supplies within one block.

"Public opinion has no objections to this proposed site. No cost for transportation of prisoners, as this site is within walking distance of the court house.

"In conclusion, the value of part of the county poor farm that would lend itself to a residential development, would be over $100,000.00. This development, over a period of years, would equal the cost of the new county jail."

PERSIA IS WORLD FOCAL POINT IN READJUSTMENT

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)
Russia has made it clear that she expects the United Nations Security Council to drop consideration of the Soviet-Iranian affair on the basis that the matter already has been adjusted by Moscow and Tehran.
We still have to learn whether the Council will comply with this demand or will pursue its original idea of "wait and see," that is, of keeping the question on the books until all Russian troops are out of Iran. The United States and Britain in the past have felt that the council should pursue the latter policy.
In any event, even if the adjustment of the current situation is accepted as satisfactory, it would take a most active imagination indeed to reach the conclusion that Iran has ceased to be a focal point in the tremendous readjustment of zones of influence which is proceeding in Europe and Asia. Call it power politics if you want to be realistic. The whole world, of course, has an interest but Russia and Britain are the powers most deeply affected.

Iran Is Vital
Today, as for decades past, the status of Iran is of vital concern to both Moscow and London, though for different reasons. Naturally when Iran is mentioned you think of oil, and her wealth in petroleum certainly enters into the picture, but of far greater moment is her geographical position which makes her of strategic importance.

Iran has figured heavily in the long-term policies of Britain and Russia for more than a century. This situation will continue so long as the British Empire and the Soviet Union exist in their present forms. By the same token the problem may never be off the books of the United Nations, and it certainly will remain active during the great and delicate readjustment which is now being made in zones of influence.

Chazist Russia and England first clashed in a big way over Iran in the last century when St. Petersburg established a sphere of influence in Iran and Afghanistan, both of which lie up against India. Ostensibly Russia's purpose in thus thrusting southward was to reach warm water ports on the Persian Gulf, but it had the effect of creating a potential threat against Britain's great Indian possession, for both afford land highways into India, and the Persian Gulf a waterway.
This explosive situation continued until 1907 when an Anglo-Russian convention divided Iran into zones of influence. Russia took the north, Britain the south around the Gulf, and the central part was left neutral. Things went on in this fashion for more than a decade.

Great Opportunity
Then at the end of World War I Britain was given the mandate over Iraq, Transjordan and Palestine and her French ally got Syria. So between them they dominated the land route to the Persian Gulf and India.

Now this question has been opened up again. Moreover, Britain's whole position in the Mediterranean and the Middle East—control of her lifeline to her imperial connections in the Far East—is up for readjustment. Russia not only is interested in Iran but is bent on taking her place as one of the Mediterranean powers.

This readjustment is one of the great pages of history. It will not be achieved without difficulties, and yet it would appear to be one of the inevitabilities. A generation ago it likely would have provided a sure basis for war. But times have changed and we have a right to hope that the alteration will be effected peacefully.

Certainly this epochal shift in world relationships provides the United Nations with perhaps its greatest opportunity for service to mankind.

Iran government of an opportunity for graft. The oil taken from Iran by the English has made a few Iranian millionaires but has been of almost no benefit to the Iranian people, he asserted. Iran claims half of the known oil reserves of the world and must be considered a "rich prize," he added.
Describing the highway and rail supply lines used by the Americans to rush supplies to Russia through Iran during the war, the speaker said those supply lines helped bring Russian victories at Stalingrad and on the southern front. A volume of 6,000 tons of supplies monthly by the English-Iran railroad was pushed to a peak of 8,000 tons a day by the Americans, Chaplain Willard said.
Carl Menchey and Fred Wilkins were presented with Lions pins as new members of the club. It was announced that the state Lions convention will be held June 9, 10 and 11 at Pittsburgh.

Plans were announced for a joint meeting with the local Soroptimist club April 22 and a Ladies' and Past Presidents' Night on April 29 with Past District Governor David Perry, Harrisburg, as the speaker.

Accident Victim Remains Serious

Gerald Blocher, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Blocher, Aspers R. 1, remained unconscious and in a serious condition this afternoon at the Warner hospital where he was taken Monday afternoon, suffering from a fractured skull, shock and bruises after he had been struck in Biglerville by a truck driven by Charles Leroy Bollinger, 25, 60 Chambersburg street.

State police investigating the accident said that Blocher had completed a class in one building of the Biglerville high school system and was among the first of the class to leave the building to go across the street for the next class.

Police said that Bollinger was driving south and that the youth apparently was looking toward the south and did not see the truck as he started running across the street. The youngster ran into the side of the truck as it was passing, police said. Bollinger took the youngster to Dr. P. J. McGlynn in Biglerville who called the ambulance to take Blocher to the Warner hospital.

The Storms were married October 26, 1932. The divorce is sought on statutory grounds.

CAB DRIVER IS QUESTIONED IN KENNEDY DEATH

Hagerstown, Md., April 9 (P)—Authorities arranged today to use a lie detector in questioning a Hagerstown taxi driver about his movements on the night 19-year-old Betty Jane Kennedy was slain last Wednesday night.

District Attorney Leroy S. Maxwell, of Franklin county, Pa., said at Chambersburg, the lie detector device of the Pennsylvania state police would be brought to Hagerstown to be used in the investigation. The taxi driver was taken into custody for questioning yesterday by Hagerstown police. No charges have been filed against him.

Detective Carl Hartman, of the Pennsylvania state police, said at the same time he planned to go to Washington, possibly today, to question a soldier about his movements last week in the Hagerstown area. He said the soldier, who lives in the vicinity, was home in mid-week on leave. Hartman said, so far he had no information the soldier was in Hagerstown during his leave and intended to check his movements closer before making the trip to Washington.

The body of the youthful victim, a resident of Hagerstown, was found Thursday morning in a clump of bushes along a road near Waynesboro, Pa., close to the Pennsylvania-Maryland line. She had been strangled and her neck was broken.

Captain William H. Peters, of the Hagerstown police, said the cabdriver, whose name was withheld, had been reported seen with the Kennedy girl Wednesday night but that the man said he was working that night. The driver's employer, however, Peters said, reported he was not working Wednesday night. He added that no charges have been filed against him.

Says Dates Conflict
Detective Carl Hartman, of the Pennsylvania state police, assigned to the case, said that questioning of the taxi driver developed "a conflict of dates" which were being checked.

Capt. Peters said another cab driver questioned in the case would be released.

Funeral services for Miss Kennedy were held here yesterday.

ELIZABETHTOWN MEETS BULLETS HERE TOMORROW

After two years of baseball on an informal basis due to war conditions, the sport will return to Gettysburg college on a major basis Wednesday afternoon when the Bullets clash with Elizabethtown college on Nixon field at 3 o'clock.

Coach Ira Plank is starting his 31st year as coach at the college. During the past two seasons the informal teams were piloted by "Hen" Bream.

The Bullet nine has been drilling for the past several weeks and shows promise of developing into a first class outfit.

Aungst To Start

Lefty Russ Aungst, who pitched for the locals in 1941 and 1942, has been nominated by Coach Plank to start on the mound against Elizabethtown.

Mike Hummel, former Harrisburg high school hurling ace, has shown fine form on the hill and will be ready for action. George Shepherd, who won three of four games last year; Ken Lawler, former Bigler high school speed twirler, and Mal King, from Connecticut, are among the leading performers for mound action.

Bud Ecker, former Littlestown high and county league star, is scheduled to do the catching.

First base will be manned by Joe Howard of Chambersburg. Joe Cervino, hard-hitting infielder, will be at second base with either Bob Hart or Bill Brown at shortstop. Walt Kaczowski or Phil Martini will play the hot corner.

One Post Open

Howie Shoemaker, whose hard hitting made him a standout in 1940, will be in left field with Sandy Sandercock scheduled for center-field. The other outfield post is in doubt with Jack Shainline, St. Monforte and Gene Ries fighting for the post.

Elizabethtown gained a 6-5 victory over Shepherd college, Shepherdstown, W. Va., last Friday.

Following Wednesday's tilt the Bullets will play Johns Hopkins university at Baltimore on Saturday.

SAYS BASEBALL TO REACH PEAK

Williamsport, Pa., April 9 (P)—The 1946 season will be the greatest in the history of baseball, Thomas H. Richardson, president of the Eastern league, predicted today.

Richardson, who recently returned from a U.S.O. tour of veterans' hospitals in the south, also said he expected his circuit would reach the million mark in attendance as it did in 1939.

The caliber of Eastern league baseball this season will be high, Richardson continued, because of the number of players returned from the service and the number optioned from the major leagues. Some of the league's clubs have over 100 players in their training camps, he said.

Richardson said players who had been optioned to the league will report to their respective clubs after 30 to 45 days of training with the higher classification teams.

Admits Managers Do Make Mistakes

Dover, Del., April 9 (P)—Major league managers, regardless of how careful they are, "are bound to make some errors of judgment in selecting the talent to be retained," Herb Pennock, general manager of the Philadelphia Phillies of the National league, maintains.

"It has been a tremendous year for talent," Pennock said. He was in Dover to inspect the Phillies farm camp site.

Pennock asserted, however, that the Phils "have not been confronted with some of the problems in this line that existed at other camps."

"Since we are following a system in the Phillies organization of giving each aspirant every opportunity to make the grade, with this rule being applied to our club as well as every one of our farm teams, any error that we may happen to make will not be an intentional one."

The Phils' Dover, Schenectady (N. Y.), Bradford (Pa.), and Carbondale (Pa.), farm teams will hold practice sessions here.

Cleveland Goes Wild Over Hockey Playoffs

Cleveland, April 9 (P)—Hockey tickets were at as high a premium as nylons today as fans clamored to get into the 12,000-seat arena to see tonight's fourth game of the Calder cup series for the American Hockey league title, which Cleveland's "old men" are defending against the Buffalo Bisons.

"I actually believe we could fill the (Municipal) stadium," remarked a box office official, referring to the lakefront structure seating 80,000—but the stadium contains no ice rink.

Cleveland's Barons hold a two to one edge in the best-of-seven series, following their overtime 6 to 5 victory in a bruising battle at Buffalo Sunday night. The three final games if all are necessary, will be played Thursday night at Buffalo, Saturday night here, and Sunday night at Buffalo.

Pirates Call Off Good Friday Game

Pittsburgh, April 9 (P)—Yielding to a request from Mayor David L. Lawrence and a resolution passed by city council, the Pittsburgh Pirates postponed their opening home game against the Cincinnati Reds from Good Friday to Saturday, April 20.

In Oklahoma City, where the Pirates were on an exhibition tour, President William Benswanger said: "x x x in deference to the sanctity of the day, we have decided to open the season on Saturday, April 20."

IKE WILLIAMS KO'S GIOSA IN INITIAL ROUND

Philadelphia, April 9 (P)—Ike Williams, the Trenton, N. J., battler who holds NBA recognition as lightweight titleholder, has finally assumed a regal pose. He looked and acted like a champion in kayaking Philadelphia's Eddie Giosa in the first round of a 10-round contest, last night at the Arena.

And his manager, Connie McCarthy, commented "that's the way he's going to look from now on."

Williams risks his NBA crown April 30 against Enrique Bolanos, the Mexican challenger in Los Angeles.

The dusky, mustachioed Ike says he doesn't expect to have any trouble with Bolanos.

Down Three Times

"I'm really in shape again," he said. "I won't lose a fight for the next two years."

Williams floored the Quaker City fighter three times in the opening stanza, and Giosa—taking the count of "six" as the bell sounded—was unable to answer the buzzer for the second round.

Giosa, dragged to his corner, lapsed into unconsciousness as his handlers sat him on a stool. His manager, Garry Barrett, told the referee the fight was over. It was scored as a TKO win in the first round—but there was no doubt that Giosa was knocked out.

Training Camp Briefs

Dallas, Tex., April 9 (P)—Right-hander Johnny Beasley, who Manager Eddie Dyer still hopes to send against the Pittsburgh Pirates in the St. Louis Cardinals' national league opener next week is being sent to St. Louis for observation and possible treatment of his stomach.

"Although Beasley has pitched good enough to have the best spring record of any of our pitchers, other than Fred Martin," Dyer said, "he has suffered an upset stomach three or four times during the training season."

Louisville, Ky., April 9 (P)—The Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Yankees have arrived here for the delayed opener of their northern exhibition series which will wind up in Ebbets field. Rain washed out the inaugural at Nashville, Tenn., disappointing a crowd of 4,000 fans.

Charleston, S. C., April 8 (P)—Pitcher Frank Hoerst has convinced Manager Ben Chapman of the Philadelphia Phillies that three and a half years in the navy has not hurt his hurling ability. Hoerst baffled the Washington Senators yesterday in winning a 2-1 pitching duel from Roger Wolff.

Frederick, Md., April 9 (P)—Connie Mack has told his Philadelphia Athletics "we aren't going to be a pushover this year for anyone—not even the Yankees." Mack also was reported to have remarked at a private meeting of the team that the A's chances depended on how Rookies Jack Wallaesa and Gene Hendley pan out.

Tulsa, Okla., April 9 (P)—Bill Dietrich will attempt to even the Chicago White Sox-Pittsburgh Pirates spring series at 13 games apiece today when he starts for the Sox against the Bucs' Al Gerheuser. Rookie Pitcher Len Perme and First Baseman Murrell Jones stole the show yesterday as the Sox downed the Pirates 4-1. Perme held the Pirates to five hits and Jones clouted a three run home in his first time at bat since March 9 to break a 1-1 tie.

Oklahoma City, Okla., April 9 (P)—Hank Borowy of the Chicago Cubs will toss against St. Louis Brown Rookie Johnny Miller today in the 18th meeting of the two clubs this spring. The Browns hold a 10-7 margin.

Fox And Harris Will Meet Again

Philadelphia, April 9 (P)—Billy Fox, 19-year-old Philadelphia battler, who has kayoed 38 straight opponents, clashes with Pittsburgh's Ossie Harris April 22 in a 10-round contest at the Arena here.

The two met in Pittsburgh last week, with Fox using his lethal right to score a K.O. in the closing seconds of the 10th round. Harris, until he was floored, was ahead on points.

NBA CALLS FOR TITLE DEFENSE EACH 6 MONTHS

Washington, April 9 (P)—The national boxing association insisted today that champions risk their titles against leading challengers once every six months, and that goes for Joe Louis or Billy Conn.

In announcing the NBA's first 1946 quarterly ratings, president Abe J. Greene said a suitable opponent would be available for the winner of the Louis-Conn heavyweight title bout in New York's Yankee stadium, June 19.

"The heavyweight field is definitely narrowed," he said. "And after Louis and Conn have fought x x x it should not be difficult to establish a logical first-run contender for a title chance."

Some title matches have been scheduled for this spring and early summer. As soon as these are over, the "NBA looks to champions to defend their titles at least every six months," Greene said.

The ratings: Heavyweight—Champion, Joe Louis, Michigan; logical contender—Billy Conn, Pennsylvania; outstanding boxers—Tami Mauriello, New York; Joe Wolcott, New Jersey; Jimmy Bivins, Ohio; Lee Oma, Michigan.

Three Contenders Light-Heavyweight—Champion, Gus Lesnevich, New Jersey; logical contenders, Archie Moore, Missouri; Freddie Mills, England; Billy Fox, Pennsylvania.

Williams Named Lightweight—Champion, Ike Williams, New Jersey; logical contenders—Bob Montgomery, Pennsylvania; Enrique Balances, Mexico. Featherweight—Champion, Sal Bartolo, Massachusetts; logical contenders—Willie Pep, Connecticut; Phil Terranova, New York.

Bantamweight—Champion, Manuel Ortiz, California; logical contender—none listed; outstanding boxers, Bennie Goldberg, Michigan; Tony Olivera, California. Flyweight—Champion, Jackie Patterson, Scotland; logical contenders—Dade Martin, Hawaii; Joe Curran, England; Terry Allen, England.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, April 9 (P)—"What do you think of 176-pound heavyweights?" asks Col. Helme Miller, ex-president and current executive secretary of the National Boxing association and boxing coach and publicity man at the University of Maryland. Helme takes off from the recent Rocky Graziano-Marty Servo mis-match on the theme that "weight equality is the very basis of fair boxing." . . . The 176-pounder against someone weighing, say, 250, emphasizes the difference a few pounds can make when two good scrappers come together. . . . Miller suggests a 185-pound class might be in order—and that's just how the present light-heavyweight division was created. . . . we'd say maybe 190 or 195 would be a better dividing line. . . . as for the lower divisions, Helme has his own answer to what happens there: "The heck with sportsmanship and weight equality if the rate is big." . . . And the little guy who risks a beating for the big money is the first to say it.

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE

Hinky Haines, the old Penn Stater, giant footballer and Yankee baseball player, will be back as a National Football league official next fall. . . . Van Mungo is said to be beefing at Mel Ott because he was yanked from an exhibition game after Lou Boudreau hit a homer with the bases full. Maybe both should think of Lee Fohl, who was bounced as Cleveland manager because of one such pitch. Lee let Fred Coumbe, who was suffering from tonsillitis, pitch to Babe Ruth one day in 1919. The Babe socked one out of the park and that night Fohl went out as manager.

CLEANING THE CUFF

Don't put too much faith in Mid-Western rumors that either Indiana's Branch McCracken or Butler's Tony Hinkle will take the basketball coaching job at Michigan. They're very well satisfied where they are, thank you. . . . Colorado college, which makes more dough out of hockey than football, may decide to put on an invitation hockey journey when a couple of eastern teams invade the mid-west next winter.

EX-SERVICEMAN UPSETS SCORES

Buffalo, N. Y., April 9 (P)—Members of the Chicago Monarchs squad occupied seven spots in top-ten standings of the American Bowling Congress' championship tournament today.

The Monarchs, following a team score of only 2,818 Sunday night, individually scored a wholesale upheaval in the standings yesterday with national match-game champion Joe Wilman leading the way.

In other action, teams from Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and Syracuse moved into the five-man standings.

Wilman, 41-year-old discharged serviceman, rode out a hot streak with the following results:

1. Hit 2,054 for the all-events leadership, missing by 16 pins the record 2,070 set by Max Stein of Belleville, Ill., in 1937.

2. Rolled a 690 (245-236-209) single set for sixth place.

3. Scattered 706 (214-245-247) pins to combine with 578 (190-197-191) knocked down by his partner, John Small, for a seventh place 1,284 doubles rating.

PERSIA IS WORLD FOCAL POINT IN READJUSTMENT

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)
Russia has made it clear that she expects the United Nations Security Council to drop consideration of the Soviet-Iranian affair on the basis that the matter already has been adjusted by Moscow and Tehran.
We still have to learn whether the Council will comply with this demand or will pursue its original idea of "wait and see," that is, of keeping the question on the books until all Russian troops are out of Iran. The United States and Britain in the past have felt that the council should pursue the latter policy.
In any event, even if the adjustment of the current situation is accepted as satisfactory, it would take a most active imagination indeed to reach the conclusion that Iran has ceased to be a focal point in the tremendous readjustment of zones of influence which is proceeding in Europe and Asia. Call it power politics if you want to be realistic. The whole world, of course, has an interest but Russia and Britain are the powers most deeply affected.

Iran Is Vital
Today, as for decades past, the status of Iran is of vital concern to both Moscow and London, though for different reasons. Naturally when Iran is mentioned you think of oil, and her wealth in petroleum certainly enters into the picture, but of far greater moment is her geographical position which makes her of strategic importance.
Iran has figured heavily in the long-term policies of Britain and Russia for more than a century. This situation will continue so long as the British Empire and the Soviet Union exist in their present forms. By the same token the problem may never be off the books of the United Nations, and it certainly will remain active during the great and delicate readjustment which is now being made in zones of influence.

Carist Russia and England first clashed in a big way over Iran in the last century when St. Petersburg established a sphere of influence in Iran and Afghanistan, both of which lie up against India. Overtly Russia's purpose in thus thrusting southward was to reach warm water ports on the Persian Gulf, but it had the effect of creating a potential threat against Britain's great Indian possession, for both afford land highways into India, and the Persian Gulf a waterway.

This explosive situation continued until 1907 when an Anglo-Russian convention divided Iran into zones of influence. Russia took the north, Britain the south around the Gulf, and the central part was left neutral. Things went on in this fashion for more than a decade.

Great Opportunity
Then at the end of World War I Britain was given the mandates over Iraq, Transjordan and Palestine and her French ally got Syria. So between them they dominated the land route to the Persian Gulf and India.

Now this question has been opened up again. Moreover, Britain's whole position in the Mediterranean and the Middle East—control of her lifeline to her imperial connections in the Far East—is up for readjustment. Russia not only is interested in Iran but is bent on taking her place as one of the Mediterranean powers.

This readjustment is one of the great pages of history. It will not be achieved without difficulties, and yet it would appear to be one of the inevitabilities. A generation ago it likely would have provided a sure basis for war. But times have changed and we have a right to hope that the alteration will be effected peacefully.

Certainly this epochal shift in world relationships provides the United Nations with perhaps its greatest opportunity for service to mankind.

Iran government of an opportunity for graft. The oil taken from Iran by the English has made a few Iranian millionaires but has been of almost no benefit to the Iranian people, he asserted. Iran claims half of the known oil reserves of the world and must be considered a "rich prize," he added.
Describing the highway and rail supply lines used by the Americans to rush supplies to Russia through Iran during the war, the speaker said those supply lines helped bring Russian victories at Stalingrad and on the southern front. A volume of 6,000 tons of supplies monthly by the English-Iran railroad was pushed to a peak of 8,000 tons a day by the Americans, Chaplain Willard said.
Carl Menckey and Fred Wilkins were presented with Lions pins as new members of the club. It was announced that the state Lions convention will be held June 9, 10 and 11 at Pittsburgh.

Plans were announced for a joint meeting with the local Soroptimist club April 22 and a Ladies' and Past Presidents' Night on April 29 with Past District Governor David Perry, Harrisburg, as the speaker.
President Glenn L. Bream presided at the meeting, which was held in the Reformed church.

Detained Motorist Released From Jail

Andrew A. Mills, Atlanta, Ga., was released from the county jail this morning after being held overnight while local police checked a car he was towing to determine whether the Georgia man's story that he was driving it south for a motor company was correct.

When stopped Monday evening Mills, who was driving one car and had another in tow, had no registration cards to show that the second car should be in his possession. Because of the number of cars stolen recently, the local police held him and checked back to Hugh C. Glassard, Saranac Lake, N. Y., buyer for the R. S. Evans Motors, Atlanta, who, Mills said, had purchased the cars he was driving for the Evans company. When investigation disclosed that the story of the driver was correct, he was set free but told to inform his employer that hereafter the registration and owners cards be carried with the car.

Mills told Justice of the Peace John H. Baschore that "in a way I'm glad the mistake did happen—I got a good night's sleep out of it."

CAB DRIVER IS QUESTIONED IN KENNEDY DEATH

Hagerstown, Md., April 9 (AP)—Authorities arranged today to use a lie detector in questioning a Hagerstown taxi driver about his movements on the night 19-year-old Betty Jane Kennedy was slain last Wednesday night.

District Attorney Leroy S. Maxwell, of Franklin county, Pa., said at Chambersburg, the lie detector device of the Pennsylvania state police would be brought to Hagerstown to be used in the investigation. The taxi driver was taken into custody for questioning yesterday by Hagerstown police. No charges have been filed against him.

Detective Carl Hartman, of the Pennsylvania state police, said at the same time he planned to go to Washington, possibly today, to question a soldier about his movements last week in the Hagerstown area. He said the soldier, who lives in the vicinity, was home in mid-week on leave. Hartman said, so far he had no information the soldier was in Hagerstown during his leave and intended to check his movements closer before making the trip to Washington.

The body of the youthful victim, a resident of Hagerstown, was found Thursday morning in a clump of bushes along a road near Waynesboro, Pa., close to the Pennsylvania-Maryland line. She had been strangled and her neck was broken.

Captain William H. Peters, of the Hagerstown police, said the cabbie, whose name was withheld, had been reported seen with the Kennedy girl Wednesday night but that the man said he was working that night. The driver's employer, however, Peters said, reported he was not working Wednesday night. He added that no charges have been filed against him.

Says Dates Conflict
Detective Carl Hartman, of the Pennsylvania state police, assigned to the case, said that questioning of the taxi driver developed "a conflict of dates" which were being checked.

Capt. Peters said another cab driver questioned in the case would be released.

Funeral services for Miss Kennedy were held here yesterday.

ELIZABETHTOWN MEETS BULLETS HERE TOMORROW

After two years of baseball on an informal basis due to war conditions, the sport will return to Gettysburg college on a major basis Wednesday afternoon when the Bullets clash with Elizabethtown college on Nixon field at 3 o'clock.

Coach Ira Plank is starting his 31st year as coach at the college. During the past two seasons the informal teams were piloted by "Hen" Bream.

The Bullet nine has been drilling for the past several weeks and shows promise of developing into a first class outfit.

Aungst To Start
Lefty Russ Aungst, who pitched for the locals in 1941 and 1942, has been nominated by Coach Plank to start on the mound against Elizabethtown.

Mike Hummel, former Harrisburg high school hurling ace, has shown fine form on the hill and will be ready for action. George Shepherd, who won three of four games last year; Ken Lawver, former Biglerville high school speed twirler, and Mal King, from Connecticut, are among the leading performers for mound action.

Bud Ecker, former Littlestown high and county league star, is scheduled to do the catching.

First base will be manned by Joe Howard of Chambersburg. Joe Cervino, hard-hitting infielder, will be at second base with either Bob Hart or Bill Brown at shortstop. Walt Kaczowski or Phil Martini will play the hot corner.

One Post Open
Howie Shoemaker, whose hard hitting made him a standout in 1940, will be in left field with Sandy Sandercock scheduled for center-field. The other outfield post is in doubt with Rick Shainline, Si Montforte and Gene Ries fighting for the post.

Elizabethtown gained a 6-5 victory over Shepherd college, Shepherdstown, W. Va., last Friday.

Following Wednesday's tilt the Bullets will play Johns Hopkins university at Baltimore on Saturday.

SAYS BASEBALL TO REACH PEAK

Williamsport, Pa., April 9 (P)—The 1946 season will be the greatest in the history of baseball, Thomas H. Richardson, president of the Eastern league, predicted today.

Richardson, who recently returned from a U.S.O. tour of veterans' hospitals in the south, also said he expected his circuit would reach the million mark in attendance as it did in 1939.

The caliber of Eastern league baseball this season will be high. Richardson continued, because of the number of players returned from the service and the number optioned from the major leagues. Some of the league's clubs have over 100 players in their training camps, he said.

Richardson said players who had been optioned to the league will report to their respective clubs after 30 to 45 days of training with the higher classification teams.

Admits Managers Do Make Mistakes

Dover, Del., April 9 (P)—Major league managers, regardless of how careful they are, "are bound to make some errors of judgment in selecting the talent to be retained," Herb Pennock, general manager of the Philadelphia Phillies of the National league, maintains.

"It has been a tremendous year for talent," Pennock said. He was in Dover to inspect the Phillies farm camp site.

Pennock asserted, however, that the Phils "have not been confronted with some of the problems in this line that existed at other camps."

"Since we are following a system in the Phillies organization of giving each aspirant every opportunity to make the grade, with this rule being applied to our club as well as every one of our farm teams, any error that we may happen to make will not be an intentional one."

The Phils' Dover, Schenectady (N. Y.), Bradford (Pa.), and Carbondale (Pa.), farm teams will hold practice sessions here.

Cleveland Goes Wild Over Hockey Playoffs

Cleveland, April 9 (P)—Hockey tickets were at as high a premium as nylons today as fans clamored to get into the 12,000-seat arena to see tonight's fourth game of the Calder cup series for the American Hockey league title, which Cleveland's "old men" are defending against the Buffalo Bisons.

"I actually believe we could fill the (Municipal) stadium," remarked a box office official, referring to the lakefront structure seating 80,000—but the stadium contains no ice rink.

Cleveland's Barons hold a two to one edge in the best-of-seven series, following their overtime 6 to 5 victory in a bruising battle at Buffalo Sunday night. The three final games if all are necessary, will be played Thursday night at Buffalo, Saturday night here, and Sunday night at Buffalo.

Pirates Call Off Good Friday Game

Pittsburgh, April 9 (P)—Yielding to a request from Mayor David L. Lawrence and a resolution passed by city council, the Pittsburgh Pirates postponed their opening home game against the Cincinnati Reds from Good Friday to Saturday, April 20.

In Oklahoma City, where the Pirates were on an exhibition tour, President William Benswanger said: "x x x in deference to the sanctity of the day, we have decided to open the season on Saturday, April 20."

IKE WILLIAMS KO'S GIOSA IN INITIAL ROUND

Philadelphia, April 9 (P)—Ike Williams, the Trenton, N. J., battler who holds NBA recognition as lightweight titleholder, has finally assumed a regal pose. He looked and acted like a champion in kayoing Philadelphia's Eddie Giosa in the first round of a 10-round contest, last night at the Arena.

And his manager, Connie McCarthy, commented "that's the way he's going to look from now on."

Williams risks his NBA crown April 30 against Enrique Bolanos, the Mexican challenger in Los Angeles.

The dusky, mustachioed Ike says he doesn't expect to have any trouble with Bolanos.

Down Three Times
"I'm really in shape again," he said. "I won't lose a fight for the next two years."

Williams floored the Quaker City fighter three times in the opening stanza, and Giosa—taking the count of "six" as the bell sounded—was unable to answer the buzzer for the second round.

Giosa, dragged to his corner, lapsed into unconsciousness as his handlers sat him on a stool. His manager, Garry Barrett, told the referee the fight was over. It was scored as a TKO win in the first round—but there was no doubt that Giosa was knocked out.

Training Camp Briefs

Dallas, Tex., April 9 (P)—Right-hander Johnny Beasley, who Manager Eddie Dyer still hopes to send against the Pittsburgh Pirates in the St. Louis Cardinals' national league opener next week is being sent to St. Louis for observation and possible treatment of his stomach.

"Although Beasley has pitched good enough to have the best spring record of any of our pitchers, other than Fred Martin," Dyer said, "he has suffered an upset stomach three or four times during the training season."

Louisville, Ky., April 9 (P)—The Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Yankees have arrived here for the delayed opener of their northern exhibition series which will wind up in Ebbets Field. Rain washed out the inaugural at Nashville, Tenn., disappointing a crowd of 4,000 fans.

Charleston, S. C., April 8 (P)—Pitcher Frank Horst has convinced Manager Ben Chapman of the Philadelphia Phillies that three and a half years in the navy has not hurt his hurling ability. Horst baffled the Washington Senators yesterday in winning a 2-1 pitching duel from Roger Wolf.

Frederick, Md., April 9 (P)—Connie Mack has told his Philadelphia Athletics "we aren't going to be a pushover this year for anyone—not even the Yankees." Mack also was reported to have remarked at a private meeting of the team that the A's chances depended on how Rookies Jack Wallaesa and Gene Hendley pan out.

Tulsa, Okla., April 9 (P)—Bill Dietrich will attempt to even the Chicago White Sox-Pittsburgh Pirates spring series at 13 games apiece today when he starts for the Sox against the Bucs' Al Gerheuser.

Rookie Pitcher Len Perme and First Baseman Murrell Jones stole the show yesterday as the Sox downed the Pirates 4-1. Perme held the Pirates to five hits and Jones clouted a three run home in his first time at bat since March 9 to break a 1-1 tie.

Oklahoma City, Okla., April 9 (P)—Hank Borowy of the Chicago Cubs will toss against St. Louis Brown Rookie Johnny Miller today in the 18th meeting of the two clubs this spring. The Browns hold a 10-7 margin.

Fox And Harris Will Meet Again

Philadelphia, April 9 (P)—Billy Fox, 19-year-old Philadelphia batter, who has kayoed 38 straight opponents, clashes with Pittsburgh's Ossie Harris April 22 in a 10-round contest at the Arena here.

The two met in Pittsburgh last week, with Fox using his lethal right to score a K.O. in the closing seconds of the 10th round. Harris, until he was floored, was ahead on points.

NBA CALLS FOR TITLE DEFENSE EACH 6 MONTHS

Washington, April 9 (P)—The national boxing association insisted today that champions risk their titles against leading challengers once every six months, and that goes for Joe Louis or Billy Conn.

In announcing the NBA's first 1946 quarterly ratings, president Abe J. Greene said a suitable opponent would be available for the winner of the Louis-Conn heavyweight title bout in New York's Yankee stadium, June 19.

"The heavyweight field is definitely narrowed," he said. "And after Louis and Conn have fought x x x it should not be difficult to establish a logical first-run contender for a title chance."

Some title matches have been scheduled for this spring and early summer. As soon as these are over, the "NBA looks to champions to defend their titles at least every six months," Green said.

The ratings:
Heavyweight—Champion, Joe Louis, Michigan; logical contender—Billy Conn, Pennsylvania; outstanding boxers—Tami Mauriello, New York; Joe Wolcott, New Jersey; Jimmy Blinov, Ohio; Lee Orma, Michigan.

Three Contenders
Light-Heavyweight—Champion, Gus Lesnevich, New Jersey; logical contenders, Archie Moore, Missouri; Freddie Mills, England; Billy Fox, Pennsylvania.

Middleweight—Champion, Tony Zale, Indiana; logical contenders—Rocky Graziano, New York; George Abrams, U. S. Navy; Jacob Lamotta, New York; outstanding boxers—Holman Williams, Michigan; Chas. Burley, Pennsylvania.

Williams Named
Lightweight—Champion, Ike Williams, New Jersey; logical contenders—Bob Montgomery, Pennsylvania; Enrique Bolanos, Mexico.

Featherweight—Champion, Sal Bartolo, Massachusetts; logical contenders—Willie Pep, Connecticut; Phil Terranova, New York.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
New York, April 9 (P)—"What do you think of 176-pound heavyweights?" asks Col. Heinie Miller, ex-president and current executive secretary of the National Boxing association and boxing coach and publicity man at the University of Maryland.

Heinie takes off from the recent Rocky Graziano-Marty Servo mis-match on the theme that "weight equality is the very basis of fair boxing." . . . The 176-pounder against someone weighing, say, 250, emphasizes the difference a few pounds can make when two good scrappers come together.

Miller suggests a 185-pound class might be in order—and that's just how the present light-heavyweight division was created.

"We'd say maybe 190 or 195 would be a better dividing line . . . as for the lower divisions, Heinie has his own answer to what happens there: 'The heck with sportsmanship and a weight equality if the gate is big.'"

And the little guy who risks a beating for the big money is the first to say it.

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE

Hinkey Haines, the old Penn Stater, giant footballer and Yankee baseball player, will be back as a National Football league official next fall.

Van Mungo is said to be beefing at Mel Ott because he was yanked from an exhibition game after Lou Boudreau hit a homer with the bases full. Maybe both should think of Lee Fohl, who was bounced as Cleveland manager because of one such pitch. Lee let Fred Coumbe, who was suffering from tonsillitis, pitch to Babe Ruth one day in 1919. The Babe socked one out of the park and that night Fohl went out as manager.

CLEANING THE CUFF

Don't put too much faith in Mid-Western rumors that either Indiana's Branch McCracken or Butler's Tony Hinkle will take the basketball coaching job at Michigan. They're very well satisfied where they are, thank you. Colorado college, which makes more dough out of nockey than football, may decide to put on an invitation hockey tourney when a couple of eastern teams invade the mid-west next winter.

EX-SERVICEMAN UPSETS SCORES

Buffalo, N. Y., April 9 (P)—Members of the Chicago Monarchs squad occupied seven spots in top-ten standings of the American Bowling Congress' championship tournament today.

The Monarchs, following a team score of only 2,818 Sunday night, individually scored a wholesale upheaval in the standings yesterday with national match-game champion Joe Wilman leading the way.

In other action, teams from Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and Syracuse moved into the five-man standings. Wilman, 41-year-old discharged serviceman, rode out a hot streak with the following results:

1. Hit 2,054 for the all-events leadership, missing by 16 pins the record 2,070 set by Max Stein of Belleville, Ill., in 1937.
2. Rolled a 690 (245-236-209) singles set for sixth place.
3. Scattered 706 (214-245-247) pins to combine with 578 (190-197-191) knocked down by his partner, John Small, for a seventh place 1,284 doubles rating.

Third Highest
Wilman's team total of 658 was rolled Sunday night. His 2,054 all-events gross was the third highest in ABC history, and it made him the first to register two all-events scores exceeding 2,000. He rolled 2,020 at Cleveland in 1939.

Two changes were registered in the team division, the Wilkes-Barre Stegmalsers Gold Medal Beer five grossed 2,907 for fifth place, and the Beaver Gages of Syracuse took over the ninth place with a total of 2,883 pins.

The Stegmalsers shot games of 949-968-990.

REAL MCCOY
San Francisco, (P) — When an American-born Chinese youth asked Gen. Joseph Stilwell for his autograph, "Vinegar Joe" obliged—with his signature written in Chinese.

"Jeepers," the kid walked away muttering, "a four-star general, and I can't even read his writing."

TO COACH ALLEGHENY
Meadville, Pa., April 9 (P)—Allegheny college has announced appointment of R. M. (Bob) Garbark, former Boston Red Sox catcher, as football coach. Garbark, a fullback on Allegheny teams in 1929 and 1932, said a three-week spring training session will be held the latter part of April.

WHITE COLLAR DISPUTE NEARS PEACEFUL END

Pittsburgh, April 9 (P)—A dispute between two unions of Westinghouse Electric corporation employees, which arose when "white collar" workers agreed to return to their jobs at the company's strike-bound East Pittsburgh plant, neared a peaceful settlement today.

Officials of the two unions—the Independent Association of Westinghouse Salaried Employees and the CIO-United Electrical Workers—arrived at a "peace formula" at a 10-hour closed conference ending shortly before last midnight.

The plan, details of which were undisclosed, was to be submitted to the "white collar" workers at a mass membership meeting late today.

Alarmed At Situation
Acting on a back-to-work authorization of their executive committee, some 3,000 of the 6,500 salaried workers crossed CIO picket lines yesterday to enter the East Pittsburgh plant in the great back-to-work movement at Westinghouse since the start of the 84-day-old strike.

John H. Dillon, president of the Association of Westinghouse Salaried Employees, said the conference between the two unions was called after members of both groups became alarmed over "growing hostility, which has practically turned neighbor against neighbor, and family against family."

Meanwhile, in Philadelphia, W. G. Marshall of Pittsburgh, vice president in charge of the Westinghouse firm's industrial relations, said the company has decided "to tighten up in its dealings with unions."

CIGAR WORKERS TO END STRIKE
Philadelphia, April 9 (P)—A labor-management agreement ending a 176-day-old strike at the American tobacco company was to be presented to 700 CIO workers today for acceptance or rejection.

It is the longest strike now in effect in Pennsylvania.

The pact was signed by company spokesmen and the negotiating committee of the United Food, Tobacco and Agriculture Workers of America (CIO) at 1 a. m. today after a 14-hour conference.

Mrs. Jessica Rhine, regional representative of the union, hailed the agreement which provides a general wage increase of 12 to 15 cents an hour to all workers, maintenance of membership, checkoff of dues and a non-discrimination clause.

"This is the highest increase ever granted cigar workers," she said.

Back To Work Monday
The union originally had sought a wage boost of 25 per cent, changed the demand to a flat 18½ cent an hour increase and finally agreed to the company offer with time and a half overtime pay for all work after eight hours each day. Mrs. Rhine said.

John Meade, director of labor relations for the company, said he expected "full production to resume not later than next Monday."

The agreement climaxed a six-month tussle that had shut three American tobacco plants since last October. Walkouts in Charleston, S. C., and Trenton, N. J., affecting 1,850 workers, were settled last week-end.

In Wage-Price Policy
Washington, April 9 (P)—The Administration underscored its "bulge-not-a-break" description of the new wage-price policy today by holding that only part of a recent pay boost justifies a price rise.

The ruling came from the National Wage Stabilization Board in a case involving an 18 cent an hour wage hike granted March 2 by 14 Detroit milk dealers.

Specifically, the board declared that only 10 cents of the increase could be used by the dealers in applying to OPA for price relief. The wage settlement ended a 10-day strike of approximately 1,200 CIO United Dairy Workers.

As a result of yesterday's ruling—first of its kind—the dealers will be required either to absorb the eight-cent difference or apply to the Wage Board for permission to reduce their pay scale eight cents an hour.

PURCHASE PLANT
Pittsburgh, April 9 (P)—The Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. has announced purchase from the Reconstruction Finance Corp. of a large chlorine and caustic soda producing plant at Naticum, W. Va., 30 miles south of Wheeling.

The stock boys, sons of George E. Stock, are in town for their Easter vacation.

Mr. George E. Shields has accepted a position in the Mt. Holly Printing Company.

The Rev. W. A. Carver and family removed to Dillsburg on Friday.

Two Diseases Menace Elms
Sometime between 1920 and 1930 the fungous disease of elm trees now known as the Dutch elm disease was brought into the United States on bark elm logs imported for making veneer.

From a small point of infection in New Jersey the disease has spread far and wide until the endangered area today comprises all or parts of states from New England to Indiana and as far south as southern Virginia and perhaps northern North Carolina.

The second disease of elms, known only by the name—phloem necrosis—is spreading rapidly along the Ohio river and its tributaries and the Missouri Valley beyond Iowa. In some sections of the Ohio region phloem necrosis is overlapping the Dutch elm disease boundaries. To date little is known about how the Ohio Valley disease spreads. And although it is not believed to be east of the Alleghenies, all elm owners may well view with suspicion all trees showing evidences of infection.

However, major efforts here should be directed toward curbing the Dutch elm disease.

Two insects are known to carry the Dutch elm disease fungus—our native elm bark beetle and the smaller European bark beetle. These insects not only feed on elm bark near the twig bases and thereby provide punctures by which the fungus may enter, but adult beetles hibernating or propagating in diseased elm bark actually carry the fungus with them and introduce it into otherwise healthy trees when they feed.

Identification of the Dutch elm disease requires laboratory tests and is not possible by observing outward symptoms. But every elm owner as well as every public-spirited citizen who hopes to save this fine old tree from extinction should view with alarm any elm tree showing wilting leaves, dead or dying branches or other signs of illness. One of the two prevalent diseases may be the cause.

Bark beetles emerge in May and early June. If these pests have wintered in the bark of elm wood infected by the Dutch elm disease fungi, they will carry the deadly menace with them and may spread the disease as far as two miles from the source.

Robbed And Beaten
Erie, Pa., April 9 (P)—Paul William, 71, a Clymer, N. Y., farmer was reported in a critical condition in a hospital here today after being found badly beaten in an alley here Sunday night.

Police said William apparently had been robbed of $40.

STATE PUSHING IMPROVEMENTS FOR HOSPITALS

Harrisburg, April 9 (P)—The commonwealth is pushing the drafting of plans and specifications for its $17,000,000 improvement program at mental hospitals although it has not been determined if materials will be available.

Frank E. Hoffman, acting deputy Secretary of Property and Supplies, said today commonwealth representatives have conferred with Washington authorities on the problem but "we have not yet had an answer."

Federal authorities recently froze all building materials and equipment to give preference to housing for veterans. The state has sought to have its hospital improvement program classified as necessary shelter.

Modernize Utilities
"They told us to go ahead with our plans," Hoffman said, even though no immediate answer on priorities was forthcoming. It will be at least two months before architects and engineers complete detailed drawings and specifications so that bids can be asked, he added. Construction, however, already is under way at Norristown and Philadelphia hospitals.

Cities Overcrowding
Dr. Howard K. Petry, chairman of the governor's commission on state mental hospitals and superintendent of Harrisburg state hospital, said the first aim of the program is to expand the present overtaxed utilities and auxiliary services before new patient buildings are added to existing institutions.

"Pennsylvania at present has approximately 35,000 patients in mental hospitals with a comfortable capacity for 28,000," he stated. "In addition, 3,000 to 4,000 are housed in buildings that have outlived their usefulness so that the bed requirement is 7,000 to 10,000."

But the additional patient buildings cannot be added at most institutions, he added, until safe and adequate utilities are provided.

under way at Norristown and Philadelphia hospitals.

The program for the most part calls for the modernizing of utilities, laundries, storage and refrigeration, kitchens and staff housing accommodations at state institutions. The money to pay for the program comes from a $9,000,000 appropriation made in 1943 and the allocation to hospitals of another $8,000,000 by Governor Martin last year.

Cities Overcrowding
Dr. Howard K. Petry, chairman of the governor's commission on state mental hospitals and superintendent of Harrisburg state hospital, said the first aim of the program is to expand the present overtaxed utilities and auxiliary services before new patient buildings are added to existing institutions.

IF TULIPS TALKED

thought I heard an argument along my tulip beds.

seemed the whites were claiming to be better than the reds.

hey'd somehow gained the power to think, and found the gift of speech.

and followed those possessions soon with hatred, each for each.

The Lord has made us white," said they, "for that's His favorite hue."

To which the red and yellow blooms replied: "He made us, too!"

I had not noticed this before. In peace I thought they dwelt.

I had not seen a single sign that tulips hated felt.

But now, with speech and thought their own, to quarreling they fell.

And each the other bitterly their faults began to tell.

They wrangled and they battled and a fearful scene they made—
And all the foolish faults of men they publicly displayed.

ANNIVERSARY OF BATAAN'S FALL MARKED TODAY

By JOHN R. WARD
Bataan Peninsula, April 9 (AP)—A small car flying a white flag carried American officers to the Japanese lines four years ago today to surrender this fog-shrouded peninsula—where General MacArthur's stand with outnumbered, outgunned forces upset the whole timetable of Japanese conquest.

To thousands of Filipinos huddling fearfully by forbidden radios, and to the rest of the world, came these words on April 9, 1942.

"With heads bloody but unbowed, they have yielded to superior force and numbers . . . the world will long remember the epic struggle that Filipino and American forces put up in the jungle fastness and along the rugged coast of Bataan.

"Its Spirit Cannot Fail"

"For what sustained them . . . was a force more than physical. It was the force of unconquerable faith.

"Bataan has fallen, but the spirit that made it stand—a beacon to all the liberty-loving people of the world—cannot fail."

The words came from "The Voice of Freedom," the radio on still-embattled Corregidor. They were written by Capt. Salvador P. Lopez, former executive officer on Gen. Jonathan Wainwright's staff.

Lopez now is back at his old job with the Manila Post—whose pages recently heralded the death before an American firing squad of Lt. Gen. Masaharu Homma, curt commander of both Bataan and Corregidor. A convicted war criminal, Homma was condemned for the ruthless cruelties of his troops as they crushed the last formal resistance in the Philippines.

Manila papers today reprinted Lopez' historic 1942 radio announcement, although there were no formal commemoration ceremonies.

Heavy Toll of Lives

Of the dead, many—both Americans and Filipinos—still lie in jungle graves on this densely wooded peninsula.

Lt. Col. L. V. Greene reported that the U. S. Army has located the graves of many of the soldiers buried early in the Bataan campaign, identifying them through diaries and interviews with survivors. Many of the bodies have been reinterred in the military cemetery in Manila.

Greene said that the best information showed 1,600 American soldiers and 13,000 Filipinos were killed in the withdrawal to Bataan and in the holding action there. Six hundred Americans and 5,000 Filipinos were killed in the massacre which immediately followed the fall of Bataan. An additional 600 Americans and 11,000 Filipinos died on the death march which Homma ordered.

After the defeated troops had reached Cabanatuan prison camp an estimated 30,000 Filipinos and 2,000 Americans died, Greene added.

Halsey Reported In Good Condition

Philadelphia, April 9 (AP)—Fleet Admiral William F. (Bull) Halsey, Jr., 65, was resting comfortably in Philadelphia Naval hospital today suffering from an "upper respiratory infection," the navy announced.

Halsey, who had been suffering for several days "with symptoms of a common cold is in very good condition," Capt. Howard H. Montgomery, commanding officer of the hospital, said.

"There appears no cause for alarm," Montgomery, pointing out the admiral was brought to the naval hospital here "where all facilities for examination and treatment are available."

Halsey's home is in Wilmington, Del. He recently was appointed vice president of Pan-American Airways Trans-Pacific service and was to assume his new job on retirement from the navy.

Few Chocolate Eggs; Enough Colored Ones

New York, April 9 (AP)—There will be plenty of home-colored eggs for the children's Easter baskets this year—but very few chocolate ones.

Egg supplies will be "more than ample" for the first time since the war began, trade sources said. And dye-makers promise plenty of bright-hued coloring.

There will be jelly beans for the first time since the war.

Sugar and corn syrup shortages have cut production of all seasonal novelty candies, said the association of manufacturers of confectionery and chocolate.

The youngsters will not have many Easter novelties because they still are few and far between, but toy makers expect to sell about 5,000,000 Easter bunnies.

Youth Is Held In Washington Shooting

Washington, April 9 (AP)—Eugene Lee, 22, was ordered held by a coroner's jury last night for a grand jury investigation in the fatal shooting of Radioman 3/c James G. Hullings of Clarendon, Pa., here Saturday night.

Lee and his brother, Henry, 25, were arrested after a fight on a downtown street in which John E. Carter, 24, of Tacoma Park, Md., also was shot, suffering a serious bullet wound in the neck.

Seek Early Trial On Kidnaping Charges

Philadelphia, April 9 (AP)—An early trial of kidnaping charges was sought today for Emella Sobka, 23, parolee from a New Jersey reformatory who is accused of taking three-year-old Mayer Trobman from his home two weeks ago.

The youngster was found two days later, unharmed, at Attica, N. Y.

The woman was indicted by the grand jury yesterday and Assistant District Attorney John A. Boyle said he would ask for an early trial.

Meantime, Carl Hodges, a 26-year-old army sergeant from Newark, N. J., said he still wanted to marry Miss Sobka. He told police he would take her out of the country if she were freed. Police Lieutenant Bart Gorman said he told Hodges authorities could not help him.

SLAYBAUGH IS

the state minimum of $4,000 a year, all of which is paid by the state, plus $425 a year traveling expenses.

Leighton C. Taylor, member of the Bendersville school board, supported the increase in an address in which he said he believed both the teaching profession and the ministry are underpaid. Mr. Taylor also declared that "the grapevine" had brought him rumors of a Communist trend in Adams county educational institutions, and regretted "even the slightest semblance of a cloud such as this should pass over the county."

The resolution fixing Mr. Slaybaugh's salary at $4,000 was adopted unanimously. The resolution to fix the salary of the assistant superintendent at $4,000 brought requests for an explanation as to why this position was to pay the same salary as the county superintendent.

Explains Increase

Dr. Bream, incumbent, explained that he had received offers of other positions at greater salary than the $3,000 now being paid him. One of these positions, as consultant in consumer education in secondary schools of the state, with headquarters at Harrisburg, he said was still open, at a salary of $4,200. The other, a $5,000 a year position at Temple university, he said he had turned down and the job had since been filled. He declared that "there are many $5,000 jobs available to a man with a doctor's degree."

The motion to make the assistant superintendent's salary $4,000 was carried by a rising vote, the majority being approximately three to one in favor of it. The resolution increasing Adams county's share of the salary of the special supervisor was adopted without a dissenting vote. Mr. Slaybaugh explained that Franklin county has already taken action to make the salary $4,000 a year. Of this amount, Adams county will pay two-fifths of the $500 over the state minimum, and all of the $500 over the state minimum for assistant superintendent.

NEGRO HELD

Washington, April 9 (AP)—Eugene Lee, 22-year-old negro, was being held today for grand jury investigation in connection with the slaying last Saturday of Radioman 3/c James G. Hullings of Clarendon, Pa. Policeman Louis H. Giersch told a coroner's jury yesterday that Lee attempted to leave the scene of the shooting with his brother, Henry E. Lee, 25, in a cab.

THINK FIRST OF YOUR OWN COMMUNITY

This is your community. You live here. Probably you own a home or have business interests here. In some manner, what you have or what you earn comes from this community.

Therefore, you have a personal interest in the prosperity of your community. Also, you have a plain duty as a citizen to do what you can to promote local welfare.

You help when you buy from your neighborhood merchants. You help when you deposit money in the local bank, because the bank is the chief agency by which home money is kept circulating for home good.

One of the best ways to work for your own interests is to boost community interests.
